LOCAL MATTERS

For this section colder, followed by warmer weather, light to fresh easterly winds, becoming southeasterly.

THE DEATH OF SISTER MARY BERNARD GRAHAM.—The death of Sister Bernard at the Georgetown Convent last Thursday has been announced in the GAZETTE. Her father, George Graham, married the widow of George Mason, of Gunston Hall, in Fairfax county, where Mary Anne Graham was born amid the affluence and luxuries of the former South. Subsequently she became a resident of Washington. Possessing a fortune and associated from her early childhood with the best society, she surrendered all the advantages of her position in the world to assume the plain garb and adopt the pious life of a Sister of the Visitation. In 1851 she entered Georgetown Convent, from which time she had been associated with that institution in various capacities, holding the office of directress of the academy and other positions of trust for many years. Night and day she devoted herself to the duties of her office, and her pupils will mourn her death as that of a dear and valued friend. Sister Bernard's illness rapidly culminated that it was impossible for her only brother, General Geo. Mason Graham, of Louisiana, to reach Washington in time to see her before her death. Her remains were laid to rest on Friday in the beautifully situated cemetery of the sisters, beneath the oaks familiar to her from childhood. Near relatives accompanied the remains to the grave, among them her half sister, the widow of Capt. Layport, of the Navy, and Miss Jane Turnbull, daughter of Col. William Turnbull, of the Army. Sister Bernard was 79 years old.

SHIPPED WITH THE PROCEEDS.—A few weeks ago a young man about twenty-one years old calling himself W. H. Westerfield, and having from Jersey City, came here with two female evangelists—Miss Florence Graves and Mrs. Irvin—and the trio rented the old Reform Club room, on Fairfax street, and began holding religious meetings, which were well attended. A short time previous to the arrival of the evangelists in this city a lady of the name of Jonadab, a temperance organization, was formed here, and Westerfield conceived the idea of persuading Miss Graves to give a reading and recitation at the Opera House for the purpose of buying the infant lodge an organ. A committee of seven was appointed, Westerfield (Jonadab himself) being among the number. Tickets were printed and the work of disposing of them begun. Westerfield assumed supreme authority over the others of the committee, stationed himself at the door on the night of the recitation (last Friday) and collected $23.25 from parties who entered. Next day he waited upon the other committee men and requested them to turn over to him the money they had realized from the sale of tickets, telling them he was paying all the expenses of the entertainment. That evening he left the city, since which time nothing has been heard of him. The members of the lodge are very indignant at Westerfield's action and are considerably mortified at the exaggerated version of the affair which are being circulated.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild with nine prisoners but no lodgers at the station house.

The Mayor disposed of the following cases this morning:

Aaron Jackson, colored, arrested by officer Nightingale for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $2.50.

Wm. Epps, colored, and Annie Mitchell, white, arrested by officer Hayes for lewd conduct, were sent to jail for four months each.

Geo. Monday and John Dulany, colored, arrested by officers Grady and Taylor for being drunk and disorderly, were fined $5 each.

Chas. Brent, Dennis Potter and Joseph Brown, colored, arrested by officers Price, Butz and Taylor for being drunk and disorderly, were fined $2.50 each.

Colia Johnson and Laura Green, colored, arrested by officer Bettis and Sherwood for disorderly conduct, were fined $1 each.

Wm. Madella, Jas. Field and Asbury Bell, colored, arrested by officers Bettis, Grady, Sherwood and Young for fighting yesterday near the bridge pump, were fined $1.50 each, and David Thompson, also colored, arrested on the same charge and for carrying a pistol, was sent to jail for four months in default of the payment of a fine of $20.

A resident of the First ward charged with abusive language to a lady of that ward who had stopped a game of football by capturing the ball, was fined $1.50.

PERSONAL.—Miss Maggie Simpson, of Washington, is in the city on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Dr. Bedford Brown, on south Fairfax street.

Mrs. William Fulton, of Ellicott City, Md., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Martha Grin, on Duke street.

Miss Nellie McDonald, daughter of State Senator McDonald, of Heathsville, is in the city, on a visit to friends.

Miss Laura Eversole, of Berkeley county, W. Va., is visiting Mrs. J. W. Summers on Pitt street.

Naval cadet James H. Reid is visiting his parents in this city. He graduates from the academy next month.

Dr. Brown left the city this morning to attend the session of the American Medical Association which meets in Cincinnati tomorrow as delegate from Virginia.

CONFIRMATION SERVICES.—Bishop Randolph, of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, came here on Saturday and that evening and yesterday paid his official visits to the churches in this city. On Saturday night he confirmed a class of fifteen at Grace Church; at Christ Church yesterday morning a class of nine and at St. Paul's Church yesterday evening a class of fourteen. The services at all the churches were largely attended and the sermons of the Bishop were of great power and impressiveness. Among the number confirmed at Christ Church was a son of the late Rev. C. B. Dana, former pastor of that church.

BON Z. R. VANCE'S LECTURE.—There was a mistake made Saturday in the "local brevités" of the GAZETTE, in stating that the Rev. J. I. Vance would lecture for the benefit of the Alexandria Infirmary. It should have been announced that Senator Z. B. Vance, of North Carolina, will deliver the famous lecture on "The Scattered Nation," in the Opera House next Thursday evening. This lecture is a wonderful literary production, and will be an intellectual treat to any intelligent audience. The proceeds of the lecture will be for a charitable purpose.

COMPROMISED.—The various suits against the Norton Shipbuilding Company, of this city, have been discontinued, all the creditors, merchants and mechanics, having accepted the compromise offered by Capt. Norton, of fifty per cent. of their claims. To-day the money was received here to settle the accounts and the various claims paid out.

THE PRIMARY.—The democrats of the city will hold a primary to-morrow to select a ticket to be voted for at the general election to be held on the 24th inst. The names of the offices to be filled, the candidates and the places where the polls will be held are given elsewhere. The various candidates have been kept busy all day making their rounds and considerable interest is felt in the result. It is said to-day that acting under the rule adopted by the city committee, allowing all to vote who will promise to support the nominees of the primary, many colored men will take part in the same.

HELD IN GERMANY.—Mr. John S. Beach, Clerk of the Corporation Court, to-day received a letter from Leo Benjamin, stating that he had been arrested in Germany and is now held in custody there for military service on the claim of citizenship. Benjamin was naturalized in this city in April 1887 and stated that he served in the federal army during the war. He recently went to Germany but failed to take his naturalization papers with him. He now writes for them and to-day Mr. Beach forwarded them to the Secretary of War at Washington to be forwarded to Germany.

STRUCK WITH A ROCK.—Yesterday evening a number of men from Washington who were walking near Four Mile Run began tampering with the railroad signals at that point, when Mr. Thomas Taylor, the watchman there, ordered them off. The men refused to obey and persisted in their efforts to change the signals, whereupon Mr. Taylor seized a rock and struck one of them in the mouth, knocking him down. The man in falling struck the back of his head against the rail and was badly hurt. He was taken home by his friends.

FUNERAL.—The remains of the late Mr. George Mason, whose death in Portland, Oregon, has been noticed in the GAZETTE, are expected to arrive here this evening or to-morrow and the funeral services will take place at Christ Church at 12 o'clock, m., to-morrow.

FISH.—Since Saturday about 50,000 herring and 600 shad have arrived at Fishtown. Herring sold at from $3.50 to $4.00 per thousand; shad at from $10 to $15 per hundred, and rock and perch at 25 to 40c per bunch. The receipts of herring are gradually falling off as the season approaches its close.

VERDICT FOR THE RAILROAD.—In the suit of Craig vs. the V. M. R. R. Co., in the Circuit Court of Orange, to recover $5,000 damages, noticed in Saturday's GAZETTE, the jury rendered a verdict in favor of the railroad company and not for the plaintiff as stated.

DEATH OF MR. CHARLES MASON.—Mr. Charles Mason, of King George county, died last Saturday, aged about 75 years. He was a prominent citizen of that county, having in years gone by taken an active part in politics and held positions of honor and trust.

THE BREAKTH OF A CHRONIC CATARRH is often so offensive that he cannot go into society and he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceration sets in, the spongy bones are attacked, and frequently, entirely destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of the purulent secretions into the throat, sometimes producing inoperative bronchitis, which in its turn has been the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results which have attended its use for years past properly designate Ely's Cream Balm as by far the best, if not the only real cure for Hay fever, rose cold and catarrh.
